Did you know that all Municipalities are required to file a municipal transparency report to the State of Utah each quarter. Trenton is in compliance with this state requirement. You can view the results of this report at <https://www.utah.gov/transparency/>.

At the December Town Council meeting the town Auditor, Matt Regan reported on his 2020-2021 fiscal year audit. He reported that in all areas the town was in compliance with state requirements. For further information or to look over his report you can obtain a copy at the Town Hall, 17 East Main Street.

Don't forget to renew your Business License for 2022, the cost is $15 they can be renewed at the town hall during regular hours, or mailed in with you regular monthly water payment, just make a note on your water payment.
